

Sandpoint Venue Guide

Local Gig Spots for Acoustic Folk • Contact Info & Booking Notes • April 2026

This guide covers the best Sandpoint-area venues for an acoustic folk solo act, ranked roughly from most-accessible-now to longer-term targets. Each entry includes verified contact info and the recommended approach for getting booked.

Tier 1 — Start Here (Most Accessible for a New Solo Act)

OUTDOOR MARKET

Sandpoint Farmers Market

Address: Farmin Park, Oak St, Sandpoint ID 83864

Email: farmersmarketatsandpoint@gmail.com

Web: sandpointfarmersmarket.com

Live Music: Saturdays 10am–1pm ($100) and Wednesdays 3–5pm ($75). May–October season.

Best Contact Method: Email — fill out performer application on their website

★ Best first gig. Pays performers, high foot traffic, casual audience perfect for folk. Apply via website form for 2026 season starting May 2nd.

WINERY

Pend d'Oreille Winery

Address: 301 Cedar St, Ste 100, Sandpoint ID 83864

Phone: (208) 265-8545

Web: powine.com

Live Music: Live music every Friday, Saturday & Sunday. Seated wine audience — ideal for acoustic.

Best Contact Method: Call or stop in — small staff, personal relationships work best ★ Perfect genre fit. Wine crowd loves folk/acoustic. Aim for a Fri or Sun slot first (less competitive than Saturdays).

PUB / CAFE

Eichardt's Pub, Grill & Coffee House

Address: 212 Cedar St, Sandpoint ID 83864

Phone: (208) 263-4005

Email: eichardts@nidlink.com

Web: eichardtspub.com

Live Music: Monday open blues jam (hosted). Wednesday regulars. Fri/Sat one-off shows.

Best Contact Method: Email is preferred for booking inquiries

★ Monday blues jam is a low-pressure way to get on their radar before asking for a paid slot. Email intro first, then follow up by phone.

COFFEE
HOUSE

Evans Brothers Coffee

Address: 524 Church St, Sandpoint ID 83864

Phone: (208) 265-5757

Web: evansbrotherscoffee.com

Live Music: Occasional acoustic/intimate performances. Community-oriented venue.

Best Contact Method: Stop in and introduce yourself in person — small local business

★ Great low-key first venue. Coffee house audiences are attentive and folk-friendly. No formal booking process — personal relationship is the key.

Tier 2 — Grow Into These (6–18 Months)

BREWERY
BAR

MickDuff's Beer Hall

Address: 220 Cedar St, Sandpoint ID 83864

Phone: (208) 209-6700

Web: mickduffs.com/contact

Live Music: Live music Friday and Saturday nights at the Beer Hall location.

Best Contact Method: Use contact form on website, then follow up by phone

★ Louder/livelier crowd than winery — suits acoustic well once you have local name recognition. Start with Farmers Market credibility first.

BAR / LOUNGE

219 Lounge

Address: 219 N 1st Ave, Sandpoint ID 83864

Phone: (208) 263-5673

Web: 219lounge.com/contact

Live Music: Live music Fri/Sat. Books local and PNW musicians. Americana, blues, folk welcome.

Best Contact Method: Contact form on website, or call direct

★ Good genre fit — they actively book Americana/folk acts. Better to approach after you have a few local gigs under your belt and some online presence.

Tier 3 — Longer-Term Aspirations (Year 2+)

VENUE

The Hive

Address: 207 N 1st Ave, Sandpoint ID 83864
Phone: (208) 920-9039
Email: VIP@LiveFromTheHive.com
Web: livefromthehive.com

Live Music: Sandpoint's premier concert venue. Capacity 750. Multiple shows weekly.
Best Contact Method: Email VIP@LiveFromTheHive.com or through website

★ Aspirational target — The Hive books established regional acts. Build local buzz first. Opening slots or themed acoustic nights are the entry point.

SUMMER
FESTIVAL

Festival at Sandpoint

Address: War Memorial Field, 801 Ontario St, Sandpoint ID
Phone: (208) 265-4554
Web: festivalatsandpoint.com/getinvolved

Live Music: Annual summer concert series July 30 – Aug 9, 2026. Non-profit org.
Best Contact Method: Phone or visit office at 525 Pine St to ask about local opener opportunities

★ Long-term goal. Local openers occasionally featured. Build community profile over 1–2 years first, then reach out for consideration.

Use this as a starting point and personalize for each venue — especially the line referencing their specific music program. Keep it short. Venue owners are busy. Attach a 1–2 minute audio/video link, not a file attachment.

Subject: Local Acoustic Folk — Interested in Performing at [Venue Name]

Hi [Name],

My name is Jeffrey Bickish — I'm a Sandpoint-based singer-songwriter who plays original acoustic folk music. I've been performing locally for a few years and am actively looking to book regular gigs this summer.

I think [Venue Name] would be a great fit — your [Friday night music / wine crowd / outdoor atmosphere] seems perfectly suited to the kind of intimate acoustic set I do.

You can hear a sample of my music here: [link to YouTube, SoundCloud, or Instagram clip]

I'd love to chat about whether there's a slot that might work — even a shorter opening set to start. I'm flexible on timing and happy to discuss rates that work for you.

Thanks so much for your time.

Jeffrey Bickish

Booking Tips

- Lead with a link, not an attachment. A YouTube or Instagram clip is easier to open and share than an mp3. Even a simple phone recording is fine early on.
- Personalize every email. One sentence referencing their specific music program shows you've done your homework and aren't mass-spamming.
- Follow up once. If no response in 10 days, one brief follow-up is fine. After that, try a different contact method (phone or in-person).
- Start small on rate. For first-time bookings, $100–$150 for a 2-hour set is reasonable. Once you're a known quantity, rates rise.
- Go in person when possible. Sandpoint is a small town — showing up, introducing yourself, and leaving a business card (or just your name) goes a long way.
- Farmers Market is your springboard. It's visible, paid, and gives you something to reference in every other pitch: 'You may have heard me at the Farmers Market this summer...'
